Wordpress: configurazioni iniziali

Ora vediamo come iniziare a configurare Wordpress:
– Settings → Permalinks

The screenshot shows the WordPress admin interface. The top navigation bar includes 'My Blog', a refresh icon, a comment icon with '1', a chat icon with '0', and a '+ New' button. The left sidebar menu is expanded, showing 'Settings' as the active section, with sub-items: General, Writing, Reading, Discussion, Media, Permalinks (highlighted), Privacy, and a 'Collapse menu' button. The main content area is titled 'Permalink Settings'. It features a 'Thank you for installing Astra!' message with a 'Get Started' button. Below this, a paragraph explains that WordPress offers custom URL structures for permalinks and archives, with a link to 'number of tags are available'. The 'Common Settings' section instructs the user to select a permalink structure, noting that the '%postname%' tag is useful for SEO. The 'Permalink structure' section lists six options: Plain, Day and name (selected), Month and name, Numeric, Post name, and Custom Structure. Each option has a corresponding URL example. The 'Custom Structure' option includes a text input field containing '/%year%/%monthnum%/%day%/%postname%/' and a list of 'Available tags'.

- Manage Users: Dashboard → Users

The screenshot displays the WordPress 'Users' management interface. On the left, a dark sidebar contains navigation links: Dashboard, Posts, Media, Pages, Comments, Elementor, Templates, Appearance, Plugins, and Users (highlighted). Below 'Users' are links for 'All Users', 'Add New', and 'Profile'. The main content area is titled 'Users' and includes an 'Add New' button. It shows a filter for 'All (1) | Administrator (1)' and a search bar labeled 'Search Users'. Below this is a table of users with columns: Username, Name, Email, Role, and Posts. One user, 'ADMIN', is listed with the role of Administrator and 1 post. The table includes 'Bulk actions' and 'Change role to...' controls, and a '1 item' indicator.

WEBSITE WORDPRESS SETTINGS PAGE (DASHBOARD) : HOW TO...?

The screenshot shows the WordPress dashboard's 'Permalink Settings' page. The left sidebar contains navigation links: Dashboard, Posts, Media, Pages, Comments, Elementor, Templates, Appearance, Plugins, Users, Tools, Settings (highlighted), General, Writing, Reading, Discussion, Media, Permalinks, Privacy, and Collapse menu. The main content area is titled 'Permalink Settings' and includes a 'Help' button. It explains that WordPress offers a custom URL structure for permalinks and archives. The 'Common Settings' section has five radio button options: Plain, Day and name (selected), Month and name, Numeric, and Post name (highlighted with a red box). Each option shows a corresponding URL example. The 'Custom Structure' option is also visible, showing a text input field and a list of available tags: %year%, %monthnum%, %day%, %hour%, %minute%, %second%, %post_id%, %postname%, %category%, and %author%. The 'Optional' section at the bottom allows for custom category and tag URLs, with an example provided.

WordPress offers you the ability to create a custom URL structure for your permalinks and archives. Custom URL structures can improve the aesthetics, usability, and forward-compatibility of your links. A number of tags are available, and here are some examples to get you started.

Common Settings

- ☐ Plain: `https://provalaura.netsons.org/?p=123`
- ☒ Day and name: `https://provalaura.netsons.org/2022/03/13/sample-post/`
- ☐ Month and name: `https://provalaura.netsons.org/2022/03/sample-post/`
- ☐ Numeric: `https://provalaura.netsons.org/archives/123`
- ☐ Post name: `https://provalaura.netsons.org/sample-post/`
- ☐ Custom Structure: `https://provalaura.netsons.org /%year%/%monthnum%/%day%/%postname%/`
Available tags: `%year%` `%monthnum%` `%day%` `%hour%` `%minute%` `%second%` `%post_id%` `%postname%` `%category%` `%author%`

Optional

If you like, you may enter custom structures for your category and tag URLs here. For example, using `topics` as your category base would make your category links like `https://provalaura.netsons.org/topics/uncategorized/`. If you leave these blank the defaults will be used.

The screenshot shows the WordPress dashboard with the 'Privacy' settings page open. The left sidebar menu has 'Settings' highlighted, and 'Privacy' is selected under the 'Settings' category. The main content area is titled 'Privacy' and has two tabs: 'Settings' (active) and 'Policy Guide'. Under 'Privacy Settings', there is instructional text about privacy laws and a 'Create a new Privacy Policy Page' button, which is highlighted with a red box. Below this, there is a section to 'Change your Privacy Policy page' with a dropdown menu showing 'Privacy Policy' and a 'Use This Page' button. An inset browser window shows the 'My Blog' website with the 'Privacy Policy' link in the header highlighted with a red box.

Privacy Settings

As a website owner, you may need to follow national or international privacy laws. For example, you may need to create and display a Privacy Policy. If you already have a Privacy Policy page, please select it below. If not, please create one.

The new page will include help and suggestions for your Privacy Policy. However, it is your responsibility to use those resources correctly, to provide the information that your Privacy Policy requires, and to keep that information current and accurate.

After your Privacy Policy page is set, we suggest that you edit it. We would also suggest reviewing your Privacy Policy from time to time, especially after installing or updating any themes or plugins. You may also want to consider adding to your policy.
